

Education

University of Colorado Denver, School of Public Affairs
Master of Public Administration, Program on Domestic Violence May 2014

Rocky Mountain College of Art + Design (RMCAD)
Bachelor of Fine Arts, Graphic Design + Interactive Media Dec. 2008

Professional Experience

Metropolitan State University of Denver Jan. 2019–Present
Affiliate Faculty

- Teach courses and workshops for the Gender Institute for Teaching and Advocacy

Associated Bodywork and Massage Professionals Dec. 2018–Present
Freelance Education Content Specialist

- Write and design training materials for massage therapists, educators and students

Chevo Studios Aug. 2018–Present
Part-time Office Manager

- Provide administrative support to art studio specializing in large-scale public art

Denver Domestic Violence Coordinating Council/Fatality Review Oct. 2014–Present
Research & Communications Director, former Coordinator

- Conduct research and disseminate findings to victim services professionals

Colorado Organization for Victim Assistance March 2017–June 2018
Trainer

- Coordinated multi-day training events and facilitated live and online trainings

Safe Shelter of St. Vrain Valley Nov. 2015–March 2017
Outreach Coordinator

- Increased visibility of the organization through education and outreach initiatives

The Phoenix Center at Auraria Aug. 2012–Nov. 2015
Violence Prevention Education Coordinator

- Promoted and managed campus violence prevention peer education program

CU Denver Center on Domestic Violence Sept. 2011–Aug. 2012
Graduate Program Assistant

- Facilitated communications and assisted with events for an academic program

Doctors Care July 2009–Aug. 2010
Marketing Communications Assistant

- Assisted with developing and implementing organizational marketing strategy

Fight Back Productions May 2009–Feb. 2010
Marketing Coordinator

- Managed marketing, communications, and graphic design for a national company